HIALEAH'S ANNUAL EGG-STRAVAGANZA GREAT SUCCESS!

Hialeah, Florida –

On Saturday, April 11, 2009, Goodlet Park filled with over 5,000 Hialeah residents of all ages in celebration of Easter Egg-Stravaganza 2009. The event included over 50,000 hidden Easter eggs, ten giant bounce houses, seven great live acts, two delicious food booths and one lovable clown known as Ronald McDonald equaled a great, family-friendly event.

Even Disney's cutest couple stopped by! Mickey and Minnie Mouse where also at Egg-Stravaganza taking advantage of all the free eggs in our giant egg patch. The afternoon proved to be a great success with the help of the City of Hialeah's fine sponsors who where also on site offering tons of free prizes and great offers.

Live entertainment was also part of the already great package! Kids from Goodlet Theaters performed their rendition of Britney Spears' Womanizer and the adorable junior dancers wowed the crowd with Tina Turner's classic, Proud Mary. The talented boys and girls from Gigi's Dance Academy where also there with Flamenco, Belly and Break Dancers among many more and toping the day off where the hard rock band Fate Suspended who treated the older kids to an exciting performance.
